Freundeskreis der Zeitschrift offen-siv
- Gründungsaufruf
circle of friends of the journal "offen-siv"
- appeal for foundation

The journal „offen-siv“ publishes essential historical analyses and important documents. It utilises them for the current political situation and circulates with the same intention important international statements, appeals and facts.

The journal „offen-siv“ exposes unconditionally the current developments of imperialism and analyses also unconditionally the condition of the situation of the left and communist movement.

It debates about the socialist goal first of all on the level of economy that has been so far very neglected. In all its activities the journal is led by Marxism-Leninism and defends it against its traditional as well as its current, trendy disguised opponents.

Based on Marxism-Leninism the journal organises systematically marxist-leninist political education.

With all its activities „offen-siv“ contributes essentially to the development of the unity of communists based on Marxism-Leninism.

This all is only possible, because „offen-siv“ is independent from revisionist and/or opportunist forces, which have therefore no chance to blackmail it.

If this independence and therefore the quality of the work shall be kept in future, a more stable financial base is necessary.

Therefore we appeal to join
